

We are delighted to be welcoming two new faculty members to the Department of Communication, Media and Culture in Spring 2022. Joining us are [redacted] as Assistant Professor of Film Studies (Production) and [redacted] as Assistant Professor of Film Studies.

There are active faculty searches underway for an Assistant Professor of Computer Science, Assistant Professor of Psychology, Assistant Professor of History, Law and Society, and Assistant Professor of History.

[redacted] leaves AUP on 10th December to pursue new adventures and we wish her all the very best. [redacted] joined the Academic Affairs team in mid-November to take over from Olivia. [redacted] joined the Graduate Programs Office team on 1st December. A warm welcome to Asli and Tatiana.

As we near the end of the semester, we would like to send a few reminders regarding the importance of academic integrity on campus. Gail Hamilton is the current Director of Academic Integrity. Please be reminded of the University's Policy on Academic Integrity here

Soon it will be reading days and finals and the Library is starting to reinforce its services. As in previous semesters the Library is offering some workshops for students. The topics announced on AUP Engage a

